Historical Studies—Australia and New Zealand is published twice yearly, in April and October. The annual subscription is 10/6 (Australian) or $1.80, which covers postage and packing.

Subscribers are requested to include exchange charges on all interstate or country cheques.

The scope of Historical Studies is outlined in the foreword to the first number, April 1940; in brief, it will include work on Australian and New Zealand history undertaken by historians in all parts of the world, together with researches in other fields undertaken by teachers and students within the two dominions.

Contributions for the April issue should reach the editor before 15 February, and for the October issue before 15 August.

Wherever possible, articles should not exceed 7-9,000 words, and should be submitted in typescript. Contributors are also requested to follow as closely as possible the conventions introduced in numbers 3 and 4 of the first volume in the matter of footnote references and the use of capitals.

The editor would appreciate comments and suggestions.
